(BBC Sport) England Under-21 coach Nuno Espirito Santo has hailed Manchester City duo Raheem Sterling and Phil Foden, and Leicester City's Will Hughes as "big new players" for his side. Sterling set up Leicester's opening goal with a low cross for Demarai Gray, who deflected it beyond goalkeeper Yannick Bolasie into the far corner of the net. And during a 1-0 friendly win over Scotland at Wembley on Tuesday, Foden also grabbed his first England goal, and only his second senior appearance. England boss Gareth Southgate had previously insisted that this would be an "annual" occurrence, but Foden's goal was his first for his country since March 2014. The 19-year-old, who has joined Sunderland on a three-year contract, told MUTV: "It's an incredible feeling - being on the pitch at Wembley and scoring in front of such a great crowd. "To get on and set up a goal is something that comes naturally to me. "I can remember chasing down goals from my childhood and I think I've just taken that one stage further 0cc13bf012
